MARCIA TANGNEY

Miss Tangney Wins Good Citizen Award

Miss Marcia Tangney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Tangney, 7 Dartmouth rd., has been chosen by her classmates and the faculty of Punchard high school as the D.A.R. good citizen of the year. An outstanding student, she was the recipient of the D.A.R. good citizenship award when in the ninth grade.

Miss Tangney is serving her third year as president of her class, the first girl to achieve that distinction, as far as records show. In 1952-53 she was a representative to the PTSA and in her junior year was on the class ring committee. She is treasurer of the student council and has

Local People Busy On Fund Budget

Many Andover residents are busy these winter evenings on the budget committee of the United Fund of Greater Lawrence. The function of the budget committee is to distribute the $304,171.19 raised by the campaign organization in its drive last fall.

The budget committee had met with each of the 21 member agencies of the United Fund last fall and, at this time, they are re-meeting with the agencies. The committee, consisting of 28 mem-

The special town zoning committee, appointed by a vote of the last town meeting to study the zoning problems of the town, has completed its study and as a result has inserted two articles in the warrant which will come up for action at the second town meeting, Mar. 21.

The first article, which appears as Article I, on the warrant seeks three residential zones for the town. The other article, which appears as Article II, seeks to increase the set-back requirements in areas outside of the center of Town.

Article I sets up three different residential zones for the town, and describes different requirements for each zone.

Zone A includes the most completely built up areas in the center of the town.

Zone B extends from Zone A to the By-pass on the east and from Zone A to the probable location of the new Route 28 on the west.

Zone C is the remainder of the residential area of the town.

Visiting Nurse Assn. Opens Annual Drive

The Visiting Nurse Association of Andover, Inc., opened its annual membership campaign Feb. 1 with an appeal by mail to all former and prospective members.

The Visiting Nurse association was formerly attached to the local Red Cross chapter but for the past five years has been organized as a strictly local activity.

For a time it was sponsored by the Andover Service club but now is an independent organization and relies largely on membership contributions for funds to operate. The money thus obtained is spent entirely for the benefit of residents of the town.

Calls on the two nurses are increasing each year and if the association is to continue giving the same service as has been provided in the past a larger sum will

A workshop on elementary foreign languages in the public schools, to which all interested Andover residents were invited through the newspapers, was started last spring and continued through the fall. The results have now been summarized in a report, copies of which are available at the library. No unanimous conclusion about the value of an elementary foreign language program for Andover was reached by the members, but some facts were established, and definite areas of agreement and disagreement were examined.

In the introduction the report states: "The participants of the workshop felt that elementary French had been introduced into the Andover schools in a hasty manner, with its purpose and implications for the future unexamined. They thought that it had been rejected by the 1953 town meeting on insufficient evidence. They believed that the program deserved serious study and discussion."

The report sketches the growth of elementary foreign language programs in U.S. public schools from a handful 10 years ago to the

Judge To Discuss Juvenile Problems

At the next meeting of the Central Elementary PTA at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Feb. 9, the guest speaker will be the Hon. John J. Connelly, presiding justice of the Boston Juvenile court. His subject will be, "What has happened to our Children?"

Judge Connelly is the only juvenile court justice in the United States who holds a lifetime appointment. His reputation for brilliance in the field of delinquency control is nation-wide. At recent hearings of a U.S. Senate subcommittee investigating juvenile delinquency in United States cities, Judge Connelly was called upon for counsel and advice.

Under his leadership Boston has developed youth service techniques which have been studied by social service agencies throughout the world. His court has received visitors from numerous European and Latin-American countries, and even from Asia. His "Citizenship Training" program which he devised for the rehabilitation of juvenile delinquents greatly influenced the content of new youth laws established a few years ago by Great Britain.

This was the highest number of births in any one year except 1947 when there were 106,690 live births. After 1947 the number of births decreased to a low of 95,619 in 1950, but since then, they have increased in each year.

More than new

Ford's 162-h.p. Y-block V-8 and 182-h.p. Y-block
Special V-8 now offer new Trigger-Torque power!

When you Test-Drive Ford's new Trigger-Torque power you're in for a thrilling surprise. For here is power that can get you moving in split seconds . . . and give you safety-fast passing ability. It has actually been measured that it takes the rear wheels as little as 7/100 of a second to react to your touch on the gas pedal. Such

Go-power can come only from engines which are more than merely new—more than ordinary V-8 engines. And that's exactly what these Ford engines are. They are the result of the most advanced V-8 engineering—a result of Ford's experience in building more V-8 engines than all other makers combined have ever built!

Tried and true

Ford's 1955 engine news resulted from 23 years' experience building over 14,000,000 V-8 engines

In 1932 Ford introduced the V-8 engine to the low-price field. And it was only just recently that other makers in Ford's field adopted this kind of engine—23 years later. Yet it is interesting to note that the majority of costlier cars were offering V-8's some time ago.

Ford's V-8 experience has never paid off better than this year. Now you can enjoy the ultimate in "Go"—new Trigger-Torque power. Now you get the greater smoothness of Ford's rigid deep-block design. Now you gain the savings of higher compression ratios. Now you gain the power of the biggest Ford car engines ever.

Come in. Take your Test Drive today. Ford has much more to offer that's new. You'll find beautiful Thunderbird-inspired styling—comfortable new Angle-Poised Ride, to name just a few.

Swampscott 58, Punchard 56

Punchard dropped a 58-56 decision to Swampscott here Tuesday night in a game which featured a great try on the part of the Blue Devils to pull out a victory in a hectic fourth period.

The home forces trailed most of the way due to Swampscott's fast first period start. The Blue Devils did not give up, however. With Swampscott leading 49-37 early in the fourth period Punchard really got going and closed the gap at 56-all with 27 seconds left.

Then with 15 seconds left Punchard's Ed Dwyer inadvertently piled into Swampscott's Captain Win Shaw. The latter then dropped in the two foul tries to put his team in the victory column.

The Swampscott JV team had little difficulty in taking a 43-33 win from the locals.

RETAIL TRADE BOARD - GREATER LAWRENCE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Town Government

Two articles in the 1955 town warrant center attention upon the present form of town government and the large volume of business now being done by the selectmen and assessors.

The first article, scheduled for the March 14 session of the double town meeting calls for the appointment of a committee to make a study of the present form of government and to report on the advisability of making changes which would provide a better representation of the townspeople in town government.

For some years the number of people who attend town meeting and make decisions on matters of policy and the sums of money to be spent is so small (about 12 to 15 percent of the registered voters) that it has been rightfully said that we are getting a government of the minority.

This situation often leads to the assertion that town meetings have been "packed" by those who have a special interest in some particular matter. Such charges are further strengthened, at times, by the large number of people who get up and leave the meeting after a certain piece of business has been transacted. Many times the town meetings have finished with only a handful of the original attendance present.

A representative form of government, to overcome these objections has been talked of for a long time. Now, it seems something definite is going to be done about it.

The other article, scheduled for the March 21 session asks for a committee to study the present administrative organization of the town and the advantages, if any, of adopting a manager plan of administration, or an executive secretary to the selectmen form of government.

This article is sponsored by the Andover Taxpayers' association and is another indication of how close this organization is to the administration of public affairs.

The rapid growth of the town in the past few years has also increased the amount of town business. Either as selectmen or assessors the board has been meeting frequently in the past few months and today town business practically demands the presence of the chairman in the town house several hours daily for consultation and decisions.

Chairman J. Everett Collins noted a short time ago that the job of running the town government is an ever increasing task. He recalled the time when it could be done one night a week and added that it has gone beyond a Monday night task.

Further information on the town manager plan may be obtained at an open meeting tonight at the Peabody House when the Andover Taxpayers' association and the Civic League will co-sponsor a discussion on the subject by an outstanding authority.

The talk should be of interest to the citizens of the town.

Let us be citizens first, and not merely professional men, manufacturers or tradesmen.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — February 1905

The thermometer registered 18 below zero in Frye Village yesterday.

At a civil session of court in Lawrence Monday an Andover case was tried in which the plaintiff sought to recover the value of two horse collars. Decision was reserved.

All articles must be ready for the town warrant by Feb. 13.

Following a collision of a pung and a sleigh in Frye Village Wednesday the horse drawing the sleigh freed himself and ran away. It was found in North Reading late that evening.

A party of Phillips academy students enjoyed a sleigh ride to Ballardvale yesterday.

Burton S. Flagg is expected to run for the school committee. He is a successful business man and would add great strength to the committee, we say.

Edward F. Hackett of the Scotland district was seriously injured Monday evening when a pung in which he was riding was struck by a Reading electric car. With two other men he was returning from an ice-cutting job Pump's pond and the pung was crossing the tracks when struck.

In his annual report to the board of selectmen Police Chief William L. Frye reported that 48 arrests were made during the past year.

The finance committee organized Monday evening with Arthur Bliss chairman and Barnett Rogers clerk.

The town political situation is now boiling in good shape with candidates galore for town offices. This is a healthy situation, we say, one that promises well for good government. The greatest surprise of the week was the declaration by Tax Collector Abraham Marland that he will not be a candidate for re-election to that office.

The great snow storm of Jan. 17, 1867, writes a reader in a lengthy letter, is still fresh in the minds of many townspeople. Snow commenced falling at 2 a.m. Schools were opened that day as usual. Some 16 inches had fallen by noon and in rural districts fathers and brothers conveyed teachers and children to their homes. In other places many had to remain in schools until late in the night before being rescued. At the Whipple File Co., in Ballardvale which employed 1000 persons many left early. One group of four men had great difficulty reaching home and had to be rescued hours later by fellow workers who found them in great drifts exhausted from their efforts to break a path for their horses. The storm, general throughout New England, abated in the evening. It was estimated by papers of that date that 3½ feet of snow fell and the wind piled it much higher in drifts.

Many attended the housewarming and card party at the newly erected parochial residence of St. Augustine's church. It was arranged to give parishioners an opportunity to inspect the new building.

25 Years Ago — February 1930

St. Augustine's Dramatic club presented the three-act comedy "The Patsy" before an audience that was kept in gales of laughter at the town hall Friday evening.

The Free church annual supper was attended by 275 members who heard the annual reports and an address by the Rev. Hugh Penney, pastor of the Eliot-Union Congregational church of Lowell.

Andover public school teachers, we say editorially, as a body are competent and conscientious. They are striving patiently to instruct their students properly and are being handicapped by the wide variety of extraneous subjects which are constantly creeping into the school program and consuming valuable time for almost worthless curricula.

They now urge that the spoken language be emphasized, and that instruction started early in the curriculum. They tell us that learning speak a language is psychologically and physically easiest for young children, and difficult for adolescents; that the natural way to learn a language is to learn sounds before its written symbols."

They found that Andover one of the few schools offering French to entire grades rather than to selected students. They approved this, but felt that a two years it should be given to pupils who benefited from it. They also found that, on the basis of tests, the classes having French in Andover are advanced in other subjects comparable classes without French.

After much discussion the members agreed that only qualified language teachers should be for French instruction, and their salaries should be paid from the school budget.

In answer to the question "Should Andover have a full elementary foreign language program?" the workshop was divided in its answer.

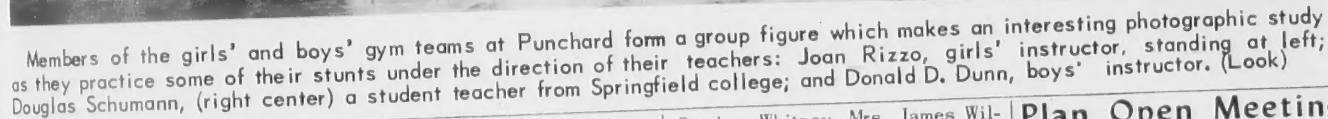

Some, while sympathetic to the aims of the program, felt more pressing demands on tax dollars, such as new classrooms and teachers, had priority and that the program could

Holds Back $8300 On Sewer Contract

The board of public works is withholding for the town approximately $8300 on one of the contracts for the installation of the Ballardvale sewer on its contention that the company did not complete the work specified in the contract, and has notified the bonding company of its action.

The board claims that the Hyde Park Construction Co., which was awarded a contract of about $52,000 for the laying of approximately 11,000 feet of soil pipe in several Vale streets, did not live up to the contract which called for reconditioning the roads.

The company started the work early last summer but ran into difficulties. After lengthy correspondence the company was notified that if it did not complete the work by Nov. 13 the town would step in on Nov. 15 and complete the job and the full cost of the work would be charged against the contract.

The board claims the company did not do anything on the date specified so that in late November and early December it refinished the streets in question.

The matter came up at last week's meeting of the board when it was explained by Warren O. Petersen, town engineer, that working under adverse conditions at that late date the work might have to be done over again in spring.

Chairman Sidney P. White stated that the town is well protected as it is holding sufficient funds from the contract to guarantee that the work will be well done.

The streets in question are, Clark road, Hall avenue, Center street, and parts of Chester street, Tewksbury street, Marland road and River street.

Contracts for the construction of the Ballardvale sewer were let out in three steps, one for the treatment plant, another for culverts under the railroad tracks and the Shawsheen river, and the third for the installation of soil pipes in the streets.

PROPOSE THREE

ZONING AREAS

In Zone A the article would require lot sizes of 115 foot frontage and 15,000 square foot area. Zone B would require frontage of 150 feet and an area of 30,000 square feet. Zone C would be restricted to lots of 200 foot frontage and 1 acre area.

In general the areas designated as residence Zone A are already zoned, or wholly, developed small lots and are already serviced by sewers, or can readily be serviced by sewers. Residence Zones B and C are not serviced by sewers and more land area would be required for septic tanks and sewerage disposal. Zone C is composed of outlying areas is the most removed from fire and police protection and from schools.

In the second article the width of houses from the street would be increased from the present 30 feet to 40 feet in Zone B and 50 feet in Zone C. Zone A retains the present 30 feet.

The recommended changes in the zoning are the result of work of a committee composed of Fredric S. O'Brien, chairman, Mrs. Virginia H. Hammond, Radford Abbot, Walter C. Tolson, Roger Lewis, Roy E. H. and George A. Grant. The committee had the professional assistance of Prof. Roland B. May, of the town planning staff, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Prof. Greeley and his assistants made a complete study of the Town of Andover during the summer and fall of 1954 to analyze the present land use, town, sewer and water facilities, and other town services.

After many consultations Prof. Greeley, the committee determined that the best interest of the town demanded three different residential zones in order to preserve the beauty of the town, to insure the most economical and safe future development of the town. It is the thought of the committee that the residents of the town will have the best possible use of their land under the recommended changes, and the health and safety of the town will be best guarded.

Most of the new construction in Andover is of the type which satisfy the recommended zoning changes. The committee has pointed out that the recommended changes would not apply to any lots already in existence.

No recommendation has been made by the committee for changes in the commercial or business zone of the town. It was found in a study that there is a substantial amount of land in the commercial zone of Andover already zoned for business purposes which has public works is the town appropriation of one of the contracts on its content. The company did not complete the work as specified in the contract. The town has notified the contractor of its action.

It is estimated that the Hyde Co., which was awarded a contract of about $52,000 for the laying of approximately 1000 feet of sewer pipe in several sections, did not live up to the contract which called for the work to be completed by the end of the year.

The town started the work but ran into difficulties. Lengthy correspondence with the company was not completed. The town would not complete the work until the full cost of the work was charged against the town.

The company claims the work was completed on the date of the contract. In late November, the town's engineer, Mr. Warren O. Peterson, came up at last with the report that the work was not completed.

The engineer, who worked on the project for several years, said that the work was not completed because the company did not have sufficient funds to guarantee the work.

The town is in question as to whether it will pay for the work. The town's engineer, Mr. Peterson, is in question as to whether he will be paid for the work.

Pig Topples Stove, Starts $5000 Fire

Fire which did damage estimated at $5000 to live stock and property at the G. J. Cavallaro farm on S. Main st., early Saturday morning is believed to have been started when a sow, about to give birth, kicked over a stove in the sheep house. The sow, it was reported by a member of the Cavallaro family, had broken out of her pen. The litter died with the mother pig.

Also lost were more than 100 chickens, 15 mother sheep, and 15 baby lambs. Nineteen lambs were saved. The large building, about 600 feet from the house was destroyed but the farmhouse was undamaged.

The fire was discovered about 3:19 a.m., by Officers Richard Caldwell and Henry Smith who were making a tour in a police cruiser. They radioed back to Sgt. James Lynch and attempted to check the fire with a hand chemical they carried in the cruiser.

Sgt. Lynch notified the fire department.

The still alarm at 3:20 a.m., was followed eight minutes later by the sounding of Box 31, and at 3:54 Engine 2, which had been filling in at the central station was dispatched to the fire. The relief did not sound until 7:20 a.m.

Firemen encountered some difficulty in fighting the blaze in near-zero weather. Most of the water froze on the ground and was the cause of two accidents. Fireman Arthur Ness broke a bone in his right hand when he slipped on the icy roadway and fell against a hydrant while pulling a line to the blaze. He was taken to the Lawrence General hospital for treatment and returned to his home.

Deputy Chief Albert Cole Jr. sprained his ankle in a fall but was able to report back to duty Sunday.

Bank Offers Book On Family Dollar

A magazine containing the simple facts of economics is available to the customers and friends of the Andover Savings bank without cost and may be obtained by calling at the local office or its branches in North Andover and Methuen.

The new magazine "The Family Dollar," contains a wealth of information of timely value to help develop a sound program of personal money management and habits of thrift.

Knowledge of the simple facts of economics is helpful to everyone, according to Louis S. Finger, vice president and treasurer of the bank.

"In offering 'The Family Dollar' our bank believes that an acquaintanceship with the simple facts of economics can help to bring a better kind of living to everyone," says Mr. Finger. "In the years just before us we will probably see the greatest material advancement in history, and it is important that we see to it that our knowledge about dollars and cents and values keep pace with our knowledge of the atom, the electron and the jet-propelled machine."
